On November 15, 2023, in New York, Fred Kennedy (STGC Class of '65) launched his most recent publication, FIRSTBORN, which is a biography of his dad, Luis Fred Kennedy (also a Georgian, Class of 1923, and inductee in Hall of Fame). Event was emceed by Fred's daughter, Sarah Kennedy. Chris Chaplin (STGC Class of '77), Hon. Consul of Jamaica in Philadelphia, gave the welcome before a full capacity crowd at the Jamaican Consulate. Derrick Reckord, President/CEO of GraceKennedy Foods USA (which sponsored the event) brought greetings on behalf of the company, and Dr. Swithin Wilmot (Class of '66) came from Jamaica specially to give the keynote address. Other Georgians present were Gary Channer (Class of '76), Warren Grant (Class of '86), President of SGTC North East OBA, Lisa Williams (board member of STGCNEOBA Board), mother of Wajay Jonas (Class of 2017), and Daniel Thwaites (Class of '87), Rhodes Scholar 1993, and attorney in New York, son of Ronnie Thwaites ('59). Fred's book is available in bookstores in Jamaica and online at Amazon. Proceeds from sales are being used to establish an annual student scholarship through the GraceKennedy Foundation at the Caribbean Maritime University in the name of Luis Fred Kennedy.
